El Programa de Descuentos para Internet

Ayudando a los hogares a mantenerse conectados

El Programa de Descuentos para Internet (ACP) es un programa de la FCC que ayuda a mantener la conexión de internet de las familias y hogares que tienen dificultad pagando por su servicio de internet.

El Programa de Descuentos para Internet (ACP) proporciona:

- Hasta $30 de descuento mensual para servicio de internet.
- Hasta $75 de descuento mensual para hogares elegibles en territorios Tribales.
- Un descuento único de hasta $100 para una computadora portátil, de escritorio o una tableta electrónica, compradas a algún proveedor participante, si el hogar contribuye con más de $10 pero menos de $50 del precio de compra.

El Programa de Descuentos para Internet (ACP) se limita a un descuento mensual para un servicio de conexión y a un descuento único para un equipo, por cada hogar.

¿Quién es elegible?

Un hogar es elegible si uno de sus miembros cumple, por lo menos, con una de las siguientes condiciones:

- Tiene un ingreso igual o menor al 200% de las pautas federales de pobreza (Federal Poverty Guidelines, en inglés).
- Participa en ciertos programas de asistencia, como SNAP, Medicaid, Federal Public Housing Assistance, SSI, WIC o Lifeline.
- Participa en programas dirigidos a territorios Tribales, como Bureau of Indian Affairs General Assistance, Tribal TANF o Food Distribution Program on Indian Reservations.
- Está aprobado para recibir subsidios del programa de desayunos o almuerzos gratuitos o a precio reducido, incluso bajo la disposición de la USDA Community Eligibility Provision para los años escolares.
- Recibió una beca Federal Pell Grant durante el año actual de premiación.
- Cumple con las condiciones de elegibilidad para el programa de bajos ingresos de alguno de los proveedores participantes.

Ingrese a fcc.gov/programa-de-descuentos-para-internet-acp para ver respuestas a las preguntas más frecuentes (Consumer FAQ, en inglés) y otros materiales sobre el programa.

Inscripción en dos pasos

1. Visite AccedealInternet.gov para enviar una solicitud o para imprimir un formulario de solicitud y enviarlo por correo.
2. Contáctese con el proveedor participante de su preferencia para elegir un plan elegible y pídale que aplique el descuento a su cuenta.

Algunos proveedores podrían pedirle que llene un formulario de solicitud alternativo.

Los hogares elegibles deben hacer dos cosas: solicitar el programa y contactarse con un proveedor participante para elegir un plan de servicios.
